

THINKING LIKE A CHRISTIAN

Understanding and Living a Biblical Worldview

Objective:

This class is for very motivated Junior and Senior High students (Grades 7-12). Each student is responsible for purchasing their own Student Journal and will be required to complete 5 days of homework each week. Completion of homework is essential to having a worthwhile discussion each week. Parents of high school students would easily be able to grant credit for this course upon its completion by grading the homework and assigning/grading papers for their own student(s).

Cost: $4.00/student to cover copying costs. All money will be given to Converse Church of Christ for the use of their copy machine.

Schedule:

WEEK 1: Introduction: Review of last semester's class

WEEK 2: Sociology: What are the foundational institutions for society?

WEEK 3: Law: What laws rule our lives and why?

WEEK 4: History: What can I learn from the past, and where is history headed?

WEEK 5: Video and Discussion: Ravi Zacharias debate

WEEK 6: Evolution vs. Intelligent Design

WEEK 7: God's Creative and Redemptive Order

WEEK 8: Sean McDowell Atheist Encounter – Video and Discussion

WEEK 9: Student Presentations (What I Learned) 3-5 minutes each

Materials Needed: Thinking Like a Christian by David Noebel, Student Journal, pencil/pen

Recommended Reading for those assigning credit for their student(s): How to be Your Own Selfish Pig, The New Evidence that Demands a Verdict, ANYTHING by Norman Geisler, Mind Siege: The Battle for Truth in the New Millennium, and Understanding Intelligent Design by Sean McDowell