

Cook with Books: Pete's a Pizza

by Jen Geary

Have you read William Steig's Pete's A Pizza before? If not, this is the perfect book to share over a fun pizza lunch with your kiddos!

In the story, Pete is in a bad mood, so his dad decides to cheer him up by making him into a pizza. It's a funny and sweet book that is a quick read, too.

Making your own pizzas can be really easy! You just need dough--we made it crazy easy and used biscuits--sauce, cheese, and toppings!

Spray your baking sheet and mash out the biscuits to form your pizza crusts.

Spread the sauce on the dough.

Then add your toppings! It's really that easy!

We baked ours for about 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

Delicious!
